BEAU BEERY AND JAMES MOORE PRESENT THE 10TH ANNUAL GAINESVILLE REAL ESTATE FORUM

Gainesville, FL (January 6, 2020) – The Beery Rainsberger Group has joined forces with James Moore & Company to present the 10th annual Gainesville Real Estate Forum to be held on Thursday, Feb. 6, 2020.

The annual event is held to allow industry professionals and those who work with them an opportunity to discuss the current state of business and real estate. The highlight of this year's event will be a panel-style discussion to discuss the economic outlook of commercial real estate, commercial and residential property trends and issues, the University of Florida's master plan of development, affordable housing, and more. Speakers will include:

- Brian Bailey, Subject Matter Expert, Commercial Real Estate, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta
- Dr. Charlie Lane, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at the University of Florida
- Betsy Pepine, broker/owner of Pepine Realty
- Stephen Weeks, Housing Programs Manager for Alachua County

The first Gainesville Real Estate Forum was held in January of 2010. Area real estate professionals gathered for a town hall meeting to discuss the state of the industry in the midst of the recession and the housing market crash. The forum became an annual event, growing in size and attendance each year as the economy recovered, with the Beery Rainsberger Group taking the helm as organizer. After a one-year hiatus in 2019, the forum will mark its 10th anniversary in 2020 and include James Moore as a co-facilitator.

This year's event will be held from 4:30 – 7:00 pm at the Best Western Gateway Grand in Gainesville and is sponsored by CenterState Bank. Refreshments including appetizers, beer, wine, soft drinks and water will be served. For more information, visit: www.gainesvillereforum.com.
